Regular registration is complete when all fees have been paid and all forms have been completed. At initial or annual registration time the minimum required will be a registration fee of $20.00, payment of tuition for the first and last month of the session, this form, and the completed Schedule of Classes. There are additional requirements when registering for Nutcracker, Spring Concert, or Junior Company participation. Once paid, all fees are non-refundable and non-transferable.

Ballet Petit is a classical ballet school dedicated to the training of both serious and recreational dancers. Our administration and staff work every day to provide the best possible environment for all dancers. With this understanding, all dancers and parents must agree to abide by and support decisions related to casting, conduct, and related matters. These may include matters affecting the school's entire population. Willful failure to follow such rules, procedures, etc. may be cause for dismissal from the school.
